

Honoring His Life and Legacy

Padre Eusebio Francisco Kino

Our Padre on Horseback

Missionary and Explorer

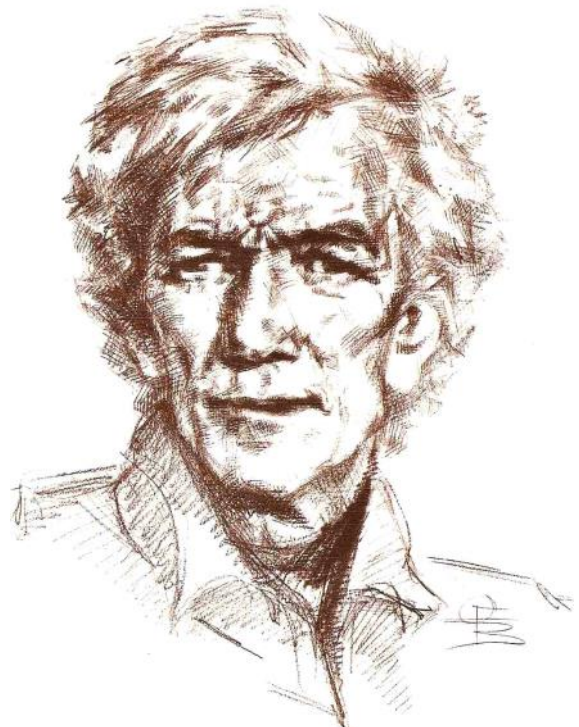

Friend of Native People

Founder of San Xavier del Bac,
Tumacácori & 22 other missions

Scientist and Mapmaker

Sainthood Candidate

Cowboy Hall of Fame's
Great Westerner

Eusebio Francisco Kino, S.J.

1645 — 1711

Mission San Xavier del Bac

Padre Kino is one of the world's greatest missionaries. Before he began his work in the New World, Padre Kino was a brilliant scholar and professor in Europe.

For his last 28 years, Padre Kino rode trails & built missions in Arizona, Sonora & Baja California as he ministered to the Native Peoples of the Sonoran Desert.

To learn more about the life and legacy of Padre Kino, visit www.padrekino.com.